The children of the Dust Bowl saw things that no one, no matter what their age, should see. And they are as capable as any witness of telling those things with devastating directness. Calvin Crabill, for instance, saw in action the U.S. government's plan to stabilize the price of beef (the Depression was on, too) and lend a hand to the Plains farmers: Buy up emaciated, worthless herds of cattle and kill them.

10 Things You May Not Know About the Dust Bowl - HISTORY

The Dust Bowl was a period of severe dust storms that greatly damaged the ecology and agriculture of the American and Canadian prairies during the 1930s; severe drought and a failure to apply dryland farming methods to prevent the aeolian processes (wind erosion) caused the phenomenon. The drought came in three waves, 1934, 1936, and 1939–1940, but some regions of the High Plains experienced ...
