Next time you're gearing up to have a company-wide DEI conversation, encourage leadership to take the 10-15 minutes ahead of the meeting to name community agreements. This list is not exhaustive.

Here's How to Have the Most Powerful DEI Conversations

1. Listen carefully. Don't assume what the conversation is about or what path it should take. Truly listen, allowing space for others to think, reflect, and express themselves. Start with building your active listening skillset, but know that truly listening goes beyond active listening, to listening to understand.
