for her fourth EP Sounds of the Season with Enya (2006), Enya started work on a Christmas album of traditional carols and original tracks, but the idea was changed to a collection of songs with a Christmas or ...

And Winter Came... - Wikipedia

referencing And Winter Came..., CD, Album, 512383-2 I consider this release the weakest album from Enya. She will forgive my words, but this album is dull and the whole Christmas theme just ruined it - not because of Christmas itself - but there is no daring moves in this particular set of songs - no new clever melodies, no innovation.

SyncAlong CDs - Enya : And Winter Came

The song "And Winter Came" is an instrumental meant for reflection. The last recorded song for the album, "My! My! Time Flies!", is a tribute to the late Irish guitarist Jimmy Faulkner. The song involves a slight departure for Enya featuring guitar solos as well as references to The Beatles, Elvis and B.B King.

In 2006 Enya released her most subtle and song-oriented album to date. Amarantine may have paled in comparison to Watermark or Shepherd Moons, but its under-produced (in Enya-world) balladry was a small leap forward for the reclusive Irish superstar. 2008's And Winter Came follows in the same footsteps as Amarantine, but it hints at the grandeur of earlier recordings, specifically 1994's ...

'And Winter Came...', Enya's seventh studio album, was released on November 10, 2008. This winter-themed recording contains two traditional Christmas carols and ten original compositions. Some people see the winter as an ending, with a whole story before it, but I see it very much as a new beginning. Roma Ryan, And Winter Came EPK, 2008 ...
