After His resurrection, Jesus told the disciples, "If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained" (John 20:23). The majority of Bible translations use similar wording here, making it sound like God has given the ministry of the Church the authority to forgive or retain sins.

They both have their own secrets and motivations. The both animation quality and sound are standard fair. I like Zack as a mass murder who only cares about himself and Rachel seems like an unemotional doll with a death wish, but she has her own sins to deal with. It is standard in both graphics and sound. This is a two part series.

But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
